ABOUT MELANIE BETZ MS, RD, CSR, FAND

I'm a nationally recognized registered dietitian, educator, researcher and speaker based in Chicago, IL. I specialize in kidney stone prevention and am changing the conversation about kidney stones and help thousands of people make better food choices to live a kidney stone-free life.

The Kidney Dietitian provides trusted nutrition education about kidney disease and kidney stones via our blog, social media and podcast.

I love working with the media, food & beverage brands and commodity boards to help even more people lead kidney-friendly lives!
